PHOTOSHOP?

Eliot Khuner, Bay Area photographer with 33 years experience, and Photoshop expert, will be teaching free Photoshop classes each Wednesday evening at Bay Area Alternative Press in Berkeley.

BAY AREA ALTERNATIVE PRESS (BAAP) unites writers, artists, graphic designers, editors, photographers, poets, press operators and other media workers within an unincorporated membership association, together with representatives of labor and community organizations of and by low-income and working people. We join together with a dedication to building independent media as a voice for working people, in general, and particularly for and by the working poor.
